

HOW TO PLAY “ROCK, PAPER, SCISSORS”

Number of Players: 2 or more players

To play, find an opponent and stand facing each other with one hand flat like a plate in front of you and your other hand making a fist on top of the palm of the other hand. Then, count down by saying:

“Rock, paper, scissors. Shoot!”

On “shoot,” play either a rock, paper, or scissors with your hand. Whoever makes the winning item with their hand wins!

1. The Rock (make a fist 🖊️) wins against Scissors as it breaks them, loses to Paper as it gets wrapped up, and stalemates against itself.
2. The Paper (flat palm of a hand 🖐️) wins against Rock as it wraps it, loses to Scissors as it gets cut, and stalemates against itself.
3. The Scissors (two fingers like scissors ✂️) win against Paper as it cuts it, loses to Rock as it gets smashed, and stalemates against itself.

ROCK

SCISSORS

If both players throw the same object, it's a tie.

In this situation, simply play again. Continue doing this until there is a clear winner.

Many people choose to do “best of 3” or “best of 5” since rock paper scissors are a quick and easy game to play.

If you play with more than 2 players, continue playing rounds until there's one player left standing.
